Later it was taken over by Gajpathis of Orissa and ravaged by the Bahmani Sultans in 1458. The Vijayanagara emperor Krishnadevaraya captured it in 1516. The Golconda Sultans fought for the fort in 1531, 1536, and 1579, and Sultan Quli Qutb Shah finally captured it in 1579, renaming it as Murtuzanagar. Later it was recaptured by the Mughal army of Aurangzeb in 1687, and the fort came under the control of the French colonists in 1752 when it was extensively fortified. It passed on to the English imperialists who got control of the fort in 1788 but abandoned it in the early 19th century in favour of Guntur.

Date: 09-01-2020

Objectives:

1. To learn about the historical significance of the Undavalli Caves
2. To observe various books exhibited in the Book fair

Description:

The Department of Telugu arranged a field visit for I and II year students to Undavalli Caves, Undavalli and National Book Fair at PWD Grounds, Vijayawada, on 09-01-2020.

The Undavalli Caves, a monolithic example of Indian rock-cut architecture and one of the finest testimonials to ancient viswakarma sthaphis, are located in Undavalli, Guntur District, Andhra Pradesh. These caves were carved out of solid sandstone on a hillside in the 4th to 5th centuries CE. There are several caves and the best known largest one has four stories with a huge recreated statue of Vishnu in a reclining posture, sculpted from a single block of granite inside the second floor.

Outcomes: Students learned about the historical significance of the Undavalli caves and observed important books in the book exhibition.
